

LORD LONGBOW---HE DOES A FIREFLY STUNT.

"When you were a youngster you doubtless have taken a wet match and tried to light it with it. You know, it's the phosphorus that does it. While riding the ostrich one night, harassed by savage man and beast, I thought of it, old chap."

"Having a hump of it, I halted the bird and gave it to you, understand."

"He lit up like an electric light, and the howls of terror that greeted us assured me that the foe was frightened out of their wits, old chap."

(Copyright, 1914, by W. W. Wagoner)

THE COURTS.

District Supreme Court.

EQUITY COURT NO. 2.—Justice Stafford.

Volney act. Admire; pro confesso defendant. Plaintiff's attorneys, F. S. Post and F. A. Givner.

Blundon act. United States Trust Company; plaintiff to receive from defendant certain sums representing their continued pending appeal; pro confesso made final; appeal noted; supersedeas bond, $500; plaintiff's attorneys, P. W. O'Donoghue; defendant's attorneys, H. Whisnup Wheatley.

Kopp act. Miller; reference to auditor; plaintiff's attorney, W. J. Lambert; defendant's attorney, L. C. Williamson.

In re Miller-Kopp act. Stock Company; reference to auditor; attorneys, L. C. Williamson and W. J. Lambert.

Elise act. Vokor and same act. Totten (in case); order of publication; attorney, W. C. Sullivan.

Morsell act. Morsell; sale ratified and reference to auditor; plaintiff's attorneys, F. R. Whipple, W. J. Lambert and F. H. Swindle; defendant's attorneys, L. R. Alder, J. Dunnington and W. Sullivan.

Alexander act. Boule; trustees authorized to accept offer and sale ratified; plaintiff's attorneys, Nathaniel Wilson and Paul E. Lester.

Sotomayor act. Sotomayor; time to take testimony extended; plaintiff's attorneys, H. E. Davis and J. E. Lasker; defendant's attorneys, Douglas, Ruffin and Chas. D. Brodbeck.

George act. George; plaintiff's attorney, George C. Gertman substituted as trustee; petitioner's attorney, M. Duckett & Son.

Elks act. Hicke; rule as to contempt returnable March 27; plaintiff's attorneys, M. Duckett & Son.

Mannum act. Mannum; rule as to contempt returnable April 3; plaintiff's attorneys, M. Duckett & Son.

National Savings and Trust Company act. Schneck; commission ordered to issue; plaintiff's attorneys, R. M. Thomas and Andrew Wilson.

Elks act. Hicke; rule as to contempt returnable March 27; plaintiff's attorneys, M. Duckett & Son.

CIRCUIT COURT NO. 1.—Justice Barnard.

Lyons act. Bursey; verdict for defendant; plaintiff's attorney, L. S. Lyon; defendant's attorney, Leo Stinson.

Sloane act. Mumford et al. verdict for plaintiff for $500; plaintiff's attorneys, R. C. Brandenburg and Brandenburg.

Skinner & Garrett act. District of Columbia; time to submit evidence bill of exceptions extended to April 15; plaintiff's attorneys, F. B. Rhodes and Albert Johnson; defendant's attorneys, R. J. Whiteford and R. L. Williams.

Belt act. Polger; on trial; plaintiff's attorneys, J. E. Padgett and W. M. Ellison; defendant's attorneys, Cardale, Luckett & Howe.

Striano act. Washington Railway and Electric Company; verdict for plaintiff for $500; plaintiff's attorneys, Rothchild & Diggs; defendant's attorney, W. G. Johnson.

ECUIT COURT NO. 2.—Justice Anderson.

Forbes act. Arcade Company; continued for the term; plaintiff's attorneys, Haylen, Frank & Pierce; defendant's attorneys, Leckie, Cox and Kratz.

Jacker act. Seibel; on trial; plaintiff's attorney, E. L. Gies; defendant's attorney, M. J. Colbert.

CRIMINAL COURT NO. 1.—Justice Gould.

United States act. Joseph L. Burch and Oscar A. Zoelner; housebreaking; verdict guilty each; referred to probation officer; attorneys, Turner & Blatts.

United States act. James C. Billings; grand larceny; time to settle bill of exceptions extended to March 31, and to file transcript to April 2; attorney, M. E. O'Brien and Peston Gordon.

United States act. John Wran; non-support; bench warrant returned cepi and defendant committed.

United States act. Maurice J. Banks; non-support; bench warrant returned cepi and defendant committed.

United States act. John Childs, Clarence Green and George Bell; assault with dangerous weapon; verdict, guilty; each remanded; attorneys, T. L. Jones, E. G. Hubert and C. S. Williams.

United States act. Walter E. Hall; housebreaking; placed on probation.

United States act. Charles H. Escoffrey; non-support; plea, guilty to second count; note pro as to first count; sentenced to jail for eleven months and twenty-nine days; placed on probation.

United States act. James H. Jackson; second offense petit larceny; verdict, guilty of petit larceny; sentenced to jail for eleven months and twenty-nine days; attorneys, C. S. Williams.

CRIMINAL COURT NO. 2.—Justice Wright.

Estate of Alfred S. Gillette; on trial; executor's attorneys, A. S. Worthington, C. H. Merrill, B. S. Minor and E. T. Garrett; caretaker's attorneys, J. J. Darrington and E. J. Hogan.

PROBATE COURT.—Justice Stafford.

Estate of Benjamin W. Hawes; will administration c. t. a. granted to Harriet C. Hawes and Frank W. Hawes; bond, $25,000; attorneys, H. Whisnup Wheatley.

Estate of Annie E. Harvey; will dated October 7, 1907, died.

In re Leonard; Elder; order appointing Julia B. Elder guardian; bond, $300; attorneys, Wolf & Cohen.

Estate of Sarah L. Elder; will admitted to probate and letters of administration c. t. a. granted to Julia B. Elder; bond, $200; attorneys, Wolf & Cohen.

Estate of Anna B. Carter; will admitted to probate and letters of admini-

SOUTH DAKOTA PRIMARY.

Returns Indicate Victory for Entire Majority Republican Ticket.

PIERRE, S. D., March 26.—The entire majority republican state ticket, headed by Gov. Byrne, was nominated in Tuesday's primary election, according to returns today from all parts of the state. Representative Dillon was nominated in the first district, Judge W. G. Rice in the third, and Attorney General Johnson in the second district. Late returns continued to increase Representative Burke's lead over Senator Crawford for the nomination for United States senator.

SECOND COXEY 'ARMY' COMING.

Leaders Write President Wilson Marchers Will Arrive May 21.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 26.—President Wilson last night was warned of the departure for Washington of a second "Coxey's army," which, it is said, will start April 16 from Massillon, Ohio, the starting point for the first "army" twenty years ago yesterday.

"Gen." J. S. Coxey of Massillon, the leader, last night mailed to the President a letter telling of his plans and inciting a pamphlet on "The Coxey's army" and other public improvements.

The "army" expects to arrive in Washington May 21, Coxey says, to petition the President and Congress for measures which will give work to the unemployed.

This will give you forty-five days to inform yourself of the object of this second march," Coxey's letter says. "I am a regular republican, and I am in connection with the Hufman case recently tried. His bond was fixed at $3,000."

POLICE CHIEF INDICTED.

Three Others Cited in Terre Haute Street Car Riot Cases.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 26.—Indictments growing out of the recent street car rioting here were returned yesterday afternoon by the grand jury which for the past four weeks has been investigating various cases.

Chief of Police Edward Holler, Edgar L. Brown, a prominent labor leader, and Hilton Redman, an attorney and politician, are charged jointly in one indictment with conspiring to cause riots for the purpose of causing injury to the property of the traction company. Their bond was fixed at $25,000 each.

The other indictment is against Sidney Onyett, a politician and lawyer, who is charged with illegally removing ballots. This case is in connection with the Huffman case recently tried. His bond was fixed at $3,000.

EXAMINATION IS WAIVED.

Place Made for Paul E. Myers Because He Is Needed.

Because his services and qualifications are needed in connection with the administration of the income tax law in the office of the commissioner of internal revenue, Paul E. Myers is to receive appointment in the competitive classified service without examination. President Wilson, by executive order, and on the strength of the statement of the commissioner of internal revenue to the Secretary of the Treasury regarding the need for Mr. Myers' services, waived civil service requirements in his case.

Princeton, N. J., the home of President Wilson, is also the home of Mr. Myers. He has been one of the revenue agents in the district of Columbia for some time, attached to the Maryland internal revenue collection district. The place to which he will be appointed will be that of one of the assistant chiefs in the income tax collection division. His new post will mean a considerable reduction in salary.

EXPECT TO IDENTIFY BODY.

Man Found Along Railroad Tracks May Be William Prather.

The police expect they will be able to identify the body of a young white man that was found alongside the tracks of the Southern railway at Clinton, Va., twenty-eight miles from this city, yesterday morning. In some respects, the police say, the description of the body tallies with that of William Prather, twenty-five years old, who last week disappeared from his home at 2214 Railroad avenue, Annapolis.

It is believed that the man was killed by falling from a train. There was a deep gash in his head, the police were told. C. Miller, railway mail clerk, residing at Clinton, today informed inspector Boardman of the finding of the body and said he took photographs of it, although he had not developed the plates.

Mr. Miller said that there was nothing about the appearance of the dead man to suggest that he was a tramp. His hands, the mail clerk suggested, indicated that he was a workman. Photographs of the dead man will be turned over to the police tomorrow.

DID NOT SELL POST OFFICES.

Representative Brodbeck and Secretary Get Complete Exoneration.

Representative A. R. Brodbeck of Pennsylvania, and his secretary, C. M. Geesey, were today completely exonerated from any blame in connection with the recent post office scandal at New Freedom, Pa. The post office was recently nominated by the postmaster, and the secretary was "sold" were filed. First Assistant Postmaster General Roper admitted today, but a careful investigation by inspectors absolved every one involved with the scandal. The railway mail clerk, residing at Clinton, today informed inspector Boardman of the finding of the body and said he took photographs of it, although he had not developed the plates.

DOMINICAN ELECTION SOON.

President to Be Chosen to Succeed Bordas.

Elections for President of the Dominican Republic, to succeed Provisional President Bordas, are to be held April 1 and 2.

The constitutional assembly of the republic has fixed that time, according to a cable to the State Department today. The assembly was appointed some time ago to revise the constitution and is still at work.

The candidates, as far as known here, are President Bordas, Federico Velasquez, minister of finance under the late President Caceres, who was assassinated several years ago, J. R. Jimenez and Horacio Vasquez, the two last named having served as presidents. Vasquez, Senator Jimenez from the presidency nine years ago. He was provisional president during nine revolutionary months until he himself lost the place.

REPORT CAMPAIGN EXPENSES.

Hobson Spends $5,367.34 in Contest With Underwood.

The Senate has received first reports of campaign expenses in senatorial primaries under the new "direct elections" amendment to the Constitution.

Representative Hobson of Alabama sent in a detailed account of expenditures aggregating $5,367.34, of which $2174 was spent in traveling and $2,648.19 in newspaper and other advertising. Contributions to his fund amounted to $1,825, of which $800 came from the National Women's Temperance Union. Representative Underwood, Mr. Hobson's opponent, has not made his report.

From South Dakota, Senator Crawford, who was defeated yesterday by Representative Burke, reported spending $2,055. While Representative Burke's list totaled $328.80, Senator Clark of Arkansas reported $290.30, and his opponent, William F. Kirby, $1,601.50.

Senator Shively of Indiana reported that he had spent nothing.

REPORT CAMPAIGN EXPENSES.

Hobson Spends $5,367.34 in Contest With Underwood.

The Senate has received first reports of campaign expenses in senatorial primaries under the new "direct elections" amendment to the Constitution.

Representative Hobson of Alabama sent in a detailed account of expenditures aggregating $5,367.34, of which $2174 was spent in traveling and $2,648.19 in newspaper and other advertising. Contributions to his fund amounted to $1,825, of which $800 came from the National Women's Temperance Union. Representative Underwood, Mr. Hobson's opponent, has not made his report.

From South Dakota, Senator Crawford, who was defeated yesterday by Representative Burke, reported spending $2,055. While Representative Burke's list totaled $328.80, Senator Clark of Arkansas reported $290.30, and his opponent, William F. Kirby, $1,601.50.

Senator Shively of Indiana reported that he had spent nothing.

CHILE IN A QUANDARY.

Seeking Way to Invite Mexico to Pan-American Conference.

Reports in diplomatic circles here are that Chile is trying to find some way in which she can invite Mexico to the fifth Pan-American conference, which begins in Santiago, Chile, November 28, next. This conference was recently postponed by Chile from September 15 to allow more time for settling of conditions in a number of Latin-American countries.

Without recognizing Mexico, which Chile has agreed not to do before the United States, it was pointed out today that one way in which Chile could get around this would be to send the invitation by some member of the Pan-American Union, for instance, Peru or Guatemala, which already have recognized the Mexican government. The only question would be, it was said, as to how the invitation should be addressed, but the general impression is that some diplomatic way out of the difficulty would be found.

At the time of the fourth Pan-American conference in Buenos Aires in 1906, Argentina and Bolivia then being at odds over boundary questions, the invitation originally to Bolivia was sent through the United States.

FIRE LOSS AT MT. AIRY, MD., $75,000.

MOUNT AIRY, Md., March 26.—Fire visited the business section of this town yesterday destroying five buildings and badly damaging a half dozen others. The losses are estimated at $75,000. Among the buildings destroyed were the Farmers' Milling and Grain Company, in which the business originated from an unknown cause; Watkins and Bangs' general store; and Robert L. Runkles' hardware store.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

WOULD MAKE JINGOES FIGHT.

Representative Gray Outlines Plan for Intervention in Mexico.

"That the influence of gentle non-intoxication is greater in an international sense than the influence of more stirring drinks was stated yesterday by Representative Gray of Indiana in a three-minute all-climax speech on the floor of the House. Mr. Gray, in defending the administration, said:

"Mr. Bryan, by reason of his superior ability and his great influence, has been able to accomplish more in the line of maintaining friendly relations than other men have accomplished with cocktails and highballs."

Mr. Gray also outlined his plans for intervention in Mexico. His military policy would include the recruiting of three companies—one of Jugo congressmen, one of their sons and the third, or strong reserve, to be made up of newspaper correspondents. The companies would be thrown into the breach one after the other, and after that Representative Gray declared, other Americans would be permitted to fight all they pleased.